

Leith Cove

Possible ship anchorage:
64°51'50"S, 62°48'44"W

Located in northern Paradise Harbour

IAATO

visitor site guide

Key Features

- Small, low elevation island surrounded by glaciers and ice
- Scenic views.

Description

TOPOGRAPHY

Low elevation, smooth granitic landing area leading up to flat, snow-covered area that is generally wildlife free.

Landing Requirements

SHIPS*

Maximum passengers on board: 500

Ships per day: 3

*A ship is defined as a vessel which carries more than 12 passengers.

VISITOR NUMBERS

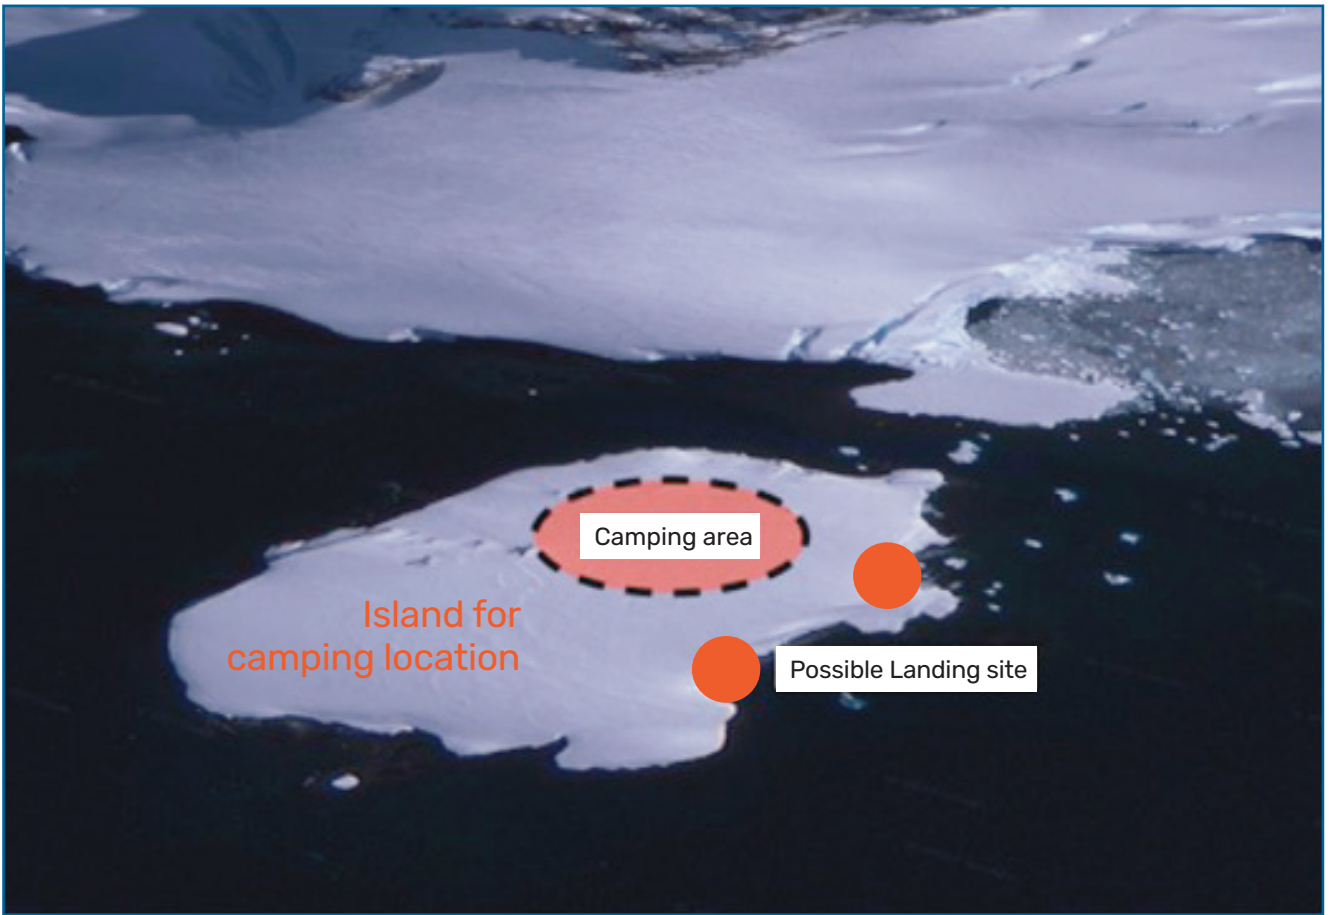

Maximum of up to 100 persons onshore at one time (excluding guides).

LANDING AREA

Some large boulders that are easily navigated.

VISITOR SAFETY

Large waves from glacier calving and ice distribution could impact access to landing area.

Historical Information

Likely named by whalers operating in the vicinity, as Leith, Scotland was the home of Salvesen and Company.