Antarctic Ambassador Expedition Challenge

Earn Antarctic Ambassador status by taking the Antarctic Ambassador Expedition Challenge. Complete the first six tasks during your expedition to receive your Certificate of Antarctic Ambassadorship. Continue your Ambassador journey by completing the final three when you get home.

Attend an educational presentation on the environment during your expedition.

Make 'mindful' menu choices during your expedition to avoid food waste.

Reduce shower use by five minutes to conserve water.

Write down your reflections on Antarctica and the impact it has had on you.

Turn off the lights in your room when not in use.

Attend an educational presentation on wildlife during your expedition.
